

On Wednesday, 13th September 2017 the annual disco to celebrate the results of the Junior Cert. takes place in Ennis. This is the highlight of this particular age group. A large crowd of students are expected to attend from the county and bordering counties. To ensure a safe and enjoyable night out for these students we the Gardai have the following advice to parents, transport operators and to the students themselves.

- It takes place in the Queens Hotel Ennis Co .Clare on Wednesday 13th Sept 2017 between the hours of 7.30 p.m. to 10.30 p.m.
- It as an alcohol free disco.
- It is confined to Junior Certs students aged between 14 to 17 years of age.
- Smart appropriāte attire would be appreciated.
- Parents are to ensure that arrangements are in place for the safe arrival and departure of their children.
- Transport operators - busses are to ensure that no alcohol is allowed on their vehicles and are advised not to allow any person whom they believe to be under the influence of any substance to travel on their vehicles. Gardai will be present at the point of departure and arrival of busses.
- Anti social behaviour will not be tolerated.
- Those found to hāve consumed alcohol or other substance will not be admitted to the disco and will be dealt with by the Gardai.
- Parents will be contacted by the Gardai in the event of any student found to be engaged in any negative conduct that requires any Garda intervention.
- Parents are reminded to discuss these matters with their children beforehand and to insist that they not misbehave.
- Extra Gardai will be on duty to police the event.

If these simple rules are followed by all concerned it should allow for a most safe and enjoyable evening."
